Date: 22 hours ago 2:48pm EDT

Message: We normally do not however if you tell me how many pounds would you be interested in purchasing I can work out a price. This would be for one bag of loose catnip, not individual retail-packaged, correct?

Sender: rjfj1943

Date: 18 hours ago 6:40pm EDT

Message: Yes, we would want a 4 pound bag or 4 one pound bags, any way you want to package 4 pounds. cost and shipping costs too

Thank you

Felice

Message: Thank you for your time. I can get organic per pound catnip on amazon for 17.00 a pound. This price is way too high.

Date: 1 hour ago 11:28am EDT

Message: Sure you can, but it's probably old, not organic and from China despite claims to the contrary. Our product is only for people who care enough to want the best for their cats and the price reflects that.

Date: 1 hour ago 11:32am EDT

Message: No, this is organic and it's from Frontier who I have always bought from for years. I wouldn't buy from someone I didn't know, that is until I asked you. Your price is truly too high.

Date: 1 hour ago 11:40am EDT

Message: Our price is fine; you're just cheap. Don't kid yourself. We know what's available on amazon and ebay - most of it is trash. If your cat chokes and dies on the sawdust they add as filler, or ingests some of the toxic pesticides that is often present on the cheap junk, rest assured in knowing that it is only $40 or so to get a new cat. Good that you saved a few bucks.

Message: I am going to report your cruel and rude behavior to Esty. Someone as sick as you needs to be kept away from all public contact. I will also face book you and your company in a bad review. Anywhere and any place I can post your company and your sick cruelty to a customer to social media I will.
